BATTLESHIP QUESTION AGAIN TO THE FORE

Dayton to Oppose 13,000-Ton Fighting Ships.

Can Carry Less Armament Than 16,000 Ton Warships, Yet Cost as Much to Operate.

The question as to the advisability of constructing 13,000-ton battleships is to be fought out again in the Naval Com-Rear Admiral Bradford has decided to recommend the construction of several of these marine monsters, and the report he is to make s to ask appropriations for them. On the other hand several members of the Committee on Naval Affairs of the last House, who are certain to be reappointed by Representative Cannon, are opposed to vessels of this class. Representative Dayton, of West Virginia, is one of them. In discussing the vessels he said:

"While abroad I studied the types of the ships in the French and other navies and came to the conclusion that the 13,000-ton vessel is neither large enough nor small enough. They are as expensive to operate as a 16,000-ton vessel, while it is impossible to put as much armament upon them, or so construct them as to develop the same amount of

Talking About Foss.

It was said today by several of the Representatives in the city who have had conversations with Representative Cannon that while Foss, of Illinois, may not be retained as chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, the other members are not to be disturbed.

Just who is to succeed Representative Foss, if he is really to be given another place as good as that on the Naval Com-mittee, no one could say today. There was a belief expressed, however, that it might be Representative Dayton. If this should be the case, it is safe to say that there are not going to be any of the ships planned by Rear Admiral Bradford constructed by this Congress.

May Not Build This Year. Another Representative is the authority for saying that as Representative Can-non thinks it would be good for the party and country, as the national elec-tion draws near, to keep down expenses, the naval program is to be interrupted. no vessels being provided for until the next Congress comes in.

Attention has also been called to the demoralized condition of the shipyards of the country, many of which are in the hands of receivers, and the others in a state of chaos as a result of the wrecking of the United States Shipbuilding Company. There is doubt in the minds of the naval authorities, too, whether the yards could do any more extensive building than they now have on hand, even if it were awarded to

PURE LARD ...

J. T. D. PYLES' SEVEN STORES, Including 948 La. Ave.

Completely Banished the Pains No. 211 North Limestone Street, Lexington, Ky., April 2nd, 1903. I suffered for nearly ten years with female trouble, bearing down pains and at times intense agony. The doctor said I must have fallen or strained myself and I had prolapsus uteri. It was a constant and chronic affection forbidding any considerable effort, and at times I was confined to my bed for days. I felt a heaviness and weight in the lower abdomen, lameness in the back or across the loins. Wine of Cardui changed all this within a short time. Fifteen bottles so far restored me to perfect health that I felt but occasional twinges of pain. I began to have a splendid appetite and new life, and after using eleven bottles more was entirely cured. This is nearly a year No. 211 North Limestone Street, Lexington, Ky., April 2nd, 1903.

ago and I have not had a sick day since.

Doctors are great benefactors of humanity and make thousands of cures but they admit that female troubles are the most difficult cases they have to handle and statistics show that they make comparatively few complete cures of these diseases. A doctor who has success in treating female troubles becomes a specialist and dropping his general practice advances his charges so that very few people of ordinary means have the money to avail themselves of his services. Wine of Cardui treats female diseases in a correct and scientific manner. It is a great tonic but it always goes to the root of the trouble and corrects the real cause. Wine of Cardui searched out the weakness which kept Mrs. McNeal an invalid for ten years. Isn't that the medicine for you? If you are suffering, the same relief will be yours if you take Wine of Cardui. There is no mystery about it.
